2008 Celebrity Judges

Mayor Jim Humphrey

Mayor of Fort Myers

Jim Humphrey is a 38 year resident of Fort Myers. He was elected Mayor of Fort Myers in October 2000 and re-elected in March of 2005. He received his B.A. from Mercer University, and his law degree from Mercer University Walter F. George School of Law. A U.S. Army veteran, Humphrey served as captain in the Judge Advocate General Corps (JAG).

He is a partner at Fowler, White, Boggs, Banker Law Firm and a member of The Florida Bar and the Lee County Bar Association. Humphrey is a member of the board of Trustees for International College and Director of Fifth Third Bank Florida. His long career includes service as the first full-time Lee County Attorney and as a city judge of Fort Myers. Humphrey is currently active on the Arts and Culture Committee of the U.S. Conference of Mayors. He received the 2004 Angels of the Arts Award for the Arts Public Official of the Year.

Since Humphrey took office, the City of Fort Myers has received numerous awards and designations to include being designated in 2004 as a Preserve America Community, in 2003 the Healthiest City in the Southeast and together with Cape Coral, the 3rd Best Performing City for 2003 in the Nation.

Humphrey has successfully worked with our legislative delegation to obtain funding for the Edison & Ford Winter Estates, plus a $5 million state grant for construction of Veronica Shoemaker Boulevard and a $325,000 grant for the Langford-Kingston Home.

The Mayor and his wife, Nancy, have three grown daughters, two grandsons and a granddaughter.

Stephanie DavisThe Downtown Diva, News-Press

Stephanie Davis, also known as "The Downtown Diva", has kept her finger on the pulse of the Southwest Florida social scene for close to a decade, penning her weekly social column for the News-Press. Her popular blog can be seen at gulcoastinglive.com; she also writes for Grandeur, the News-Press's luxury living magazine and the Sunday supplement, Tropicalia. Stephanie has served as a judge in a variety of local epicurean events including the annual March of Dimes Chefs Auction, Gumbo Fest, and more.

Clay MillerNews Anchor, NBC-2

Clay wakes up daily with Southwest Florida as co-anchor on the area's top rated morning show. Weekdays from 5:00 – 7:00 a.m. he anchors NBC-2 News Today and mid-day you can find him on the desk for the NBC-2 News at Noon. Clay came to NBC-2 as Sports Director in 2004 and although he is still an avid sports fan, his new position in news is one he's extremely excited about. Having grown up in Bradenton, Clay feels right at home in Southwest Florida. An Education major from the University of Florida, he has always had an interest in broadcast journalism. In the past he worked as weekend Sports Anchor in Meridian, MS and as Sports Director in Mobile, AL. In his free time Clay enjoys spending time with his wife, Leigh Ann, his children Annaleise and Tyler, and his Labradors, Harley and Gracie. Clay is returning for his third consecutive year on the Celebrity Judging panel.

Drew SterwaldSenior Staff Writer, News-Press

Drew is a features writer and Friday columnist for The News-Press' Lifestyles section. He also covers restaurant news and writes food and cooking stories for the Wednesday Taste section. As if that's not enough, he also reviews the theater and writes a trend column called The It List, which also appears Fridays in Lifestyles.

Jason PawloskiNBC-2 News Today Traffic Reporter

Jason is the Traffic Reporter for NBC2 News Today each weekday morning from 4:15am-9am. He was born and raised in Michigan, ventured to Virginia for nine years and now finds himself living in Cape Coral, along with his loving wife of nine years and their three children. Jason went to Liberty University where he earned a bachelor's degree specializing in Religion and Communications. Jason also has his own company called Dream It Web Design where he works as a web developer. Jason came to NBC2 as the top vote-getter in the Great NBC2 Talent Search and he is thrilled to be able to provide viewers with the information they need to get through traffic in the morning and get their day going.
