

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF FORT MYERS WELCOMES SPEAKER PEGGY POST
FOR NOVEMBER 20th MEMBERSHIP MEETING

FORT MYERS, Fla., Nov. 15, 2007 – The Junior League of Fort Myers today announced that Peggy Post will be speaking at their November 20th General Membership meeting. Mrs. Post is the great-granddaughter-in-law of noted etiquette author Emily Post. She is also a well-known author and the spokesperson for the Emily Post Institute.

“Peggy Post has a modern perspective to the common issues that groups like ours might face while trying to serve our community,” says Angela Brant, 2007-2008 President of the Junior League of Fort Myers.

“Etiquette isn’t just about where your knife and fork goes on the table. It’s about respecting those you work and live with. The Junior League is a team that works together to achieve results for the organizations we serve, so we expect to gain a lot of insight into new and better ways to achieve those results efficiently and effectively.”

Ms. Post’s appearance is just one of the training and development opportunities the Junior League offers its members. The League’s tri-fold mission is to promote volunteerism, develop the potential of women and improve the community. Throughout the year, the organization presents programs at its monthly membership meeting on topics that pertain to the League’s fulfilling the mission.

Media who wish to interview Mrs. Post must register by contacting: Anita Duenas, PR Chair, Junior League of Fort Myers, 239-433-1064 or at publicrelations@jlfm.org. Ms. Post will be available 5:30 to 6:00 pm.
